

What have we learned from the past?

Topic words
Myth	A story from ancient times, especially one that was told to explain natural events or to describe the early history of a people.
Legend	A story from ancient times about people and events that may or may not be true.
King & Queen	A male/female ruler of an independent state that has a royal family
Castle	A large strong building with thick high walls and towers, built in the past by kings or queens, or other important people, to defend themselves against an attack.
St George	The national saint of England. According to the legend, he killed a dragon to save a woman.
King Arthur	A king of England. There are many stories about King Arthur, e.g. that he pulled his sword Excalibur from a stone, and that he sat with his knights at a Round Table.
Robin Hood	A person who takes or steals money from rich people and gives it to poor people

By the end of this topic.....

- * I will be able to talk about St George and the Dragon. I will be able to retell the story.
- * I will be able to talk about King Arthur and his adventures.
- * I will be able to talk about the story of Robin Hood.
- * I will begin to identify kings and queens of England.

Curriculum Links

Understanding the World - People and Communities 30-50

Recognises and describes special times or events for family or friends.

Shows interest in different occupations and ways of life

ELG Children talk about past and present events in their own lives and in the lives of family members. They know about similarities and differences between themselves and others, and among families, communities and traditions.

Links to our core values...

How do these people show love, respect and kindness to others?

How did their actions show our core values?

Can we think of ways to show our core values in a similar way?

Exciting Books

