

Working Scientifically – Key Stage 1

I recognise that questions can be answered in different ways

I perform simple tests

I can compare things. I sort and group them

I use simple scientific language

I ask simple questions

I observe closely

I use simple equipment to make measurements

I talk about what I have found out

I gather and record simple data in different ways