

Privacy Notice for Visitors – General Data Protection Regulation

1. All Saints CE Academy, Denstone Commitment to Data Privacy

All Saints CE Academy, Denstone is committed to protecting the privacy and rights of anyone who chooses to share their personal data with us. The General Data Protection Regulation becomes law in all European countries from 25th May 2018. From this date, EU residents (data subjects) have greater control over the processing of their personal data and organisations within the EU have obligations to protect personal data accordingly.

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how we use any personal data we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about pupils.

2. Who processes your information?

The Academy is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means that we determine the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating to staff is to be processed. A data protection representative for the Academy, Joanne Goodwin, can be contacted on 01889 590418 or office@allsaints-denstone.staffs.sch.uk in the first instance for any queries in relation to the processing of your personal data.

Hope Kirkham is the Data Protection Officer for the Staffordshire University Academies Trust and her role is to oversee and monitor the Trust and its' Academies' data processing practices. The DPO can be contacted on 01782 969465 / 07519 106873 or hkirkham@suatrust.co.uk.

The information you provide will be used in accordance with the Staffordshire University Academies Trust GDPR Data Protection Policy and Compliant Records Management Policy which can be found by accessing the Trust's website - <http://www.suatrust.co.uk/documents--policies>.

3. For which purposes are your personal data processed?

In accordance with the above, visitors' personal data is used for the following reasons:

- Safeguarding requirements
- Health and safety requirements

- Operational functioning of the Academy under its requirement as a public body

4. Which data is collected?

The personal data the academy will collect from its visitors includes the following:

- Name(s)
- Company
- DBS data
- Means of identification
- Means to check competency as relevant

The collection of personal information will benefit the Academy by:

- Ensuring visitors are identifiable to the academy.
- Ensuring students and staff are safe in the workplace.
- Ensuring visitors are safe on the Academy premises.
- Safe evacuation of the building in the case of an emergency.
- Ensuring that visitors undertake safe working practices at the Academy.

5. Will your personal data be sought from third parties?

For visitors who are visiting the academy on behalf of an organisation, your personal data may be sought directly from your organisation for health and safety and safeguarding purposes. This information is detailed under section 4 of this document.

6. How is your information shared?

The Academy will share your data with third parties in the event of an incident affecting the health and safety of the visitor or other building occupants, or a safeguarding incident affecting the visitor or other building occupants.

In the instance of a health and safety or safeguarding incident, personal information may be shared as follows:

Name of the Organisation	Purpose for Sharing Personal Data
Staffordshire County Council	Health and Safety Service – accidents, incidents and near misses. Reporting for the purpose of risk management adherence and RIDDOR requirements. Safeguarding incidents requiring the support of the Local Authority Designated Officer.
Staffordshire Police	Incidents relating to the safety of the building occupants which require a police response.
Medical/Paramedic Services	Incidents relating to the safety of the building occupants requiring medical/paramedic/ambulance services.

7. How long is your data retained for?

Visitors' personal data is retained in line with the Staffordshire University Academies Trust Compliant Records Management Policy.

Personal information will be retained depending on the nature of the information. Data will only be retained for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was processed, and will not be retained indefinitely.

If you require further information regarding retention of data, and the periods for which your personal data is held for, please download our Compliant Records Management Policy.

8. What are your rights?

As the data subject, you have specific rights to the processing of your data.

You have a legal right to:

- Request access to the personal data that the Academy holds;
- To object to the use of personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress;
- In certain circumstances, to request that personal data is corrected, deleted, destroyed or restrict processing;

Where the processing of your data is based on your explicit consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time. This will not affect any personal data that has been processed prior to withdrawing consent.

9. Queries and Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance by contacting our Data Protection Officer by:

Email – hkirkham@suatrust.co.uk
