

What happened before I was born?

Topic words
Guy Fawkes Gunpowder Plot	The Gunpowder Plot was a plan to blow up the Houses of Parliament in London and kill the King. Guy Fawkes was caught with the gun powder.
Remembrance	Remembrance Day is a day to remember people who fought and died in wars. It is celebrated on the 11th November.
A museum	A museum is a building which is open to the public. It is also the institution where things are collected and then shown to people.
Past	The past tense is used for actions in a time which has already happened.
Present	The present tense is used when describing an action that is currently happening, or an event that happens regularly.

By the end of this topic.....

- * I will have an understanding of the Gun Powder Plot and why we remember it today.
- * I will understand why we remember those that have fought and dies in wars.
- * I will be able to compare old and new toys.
- * I will be able to distinguish between past and present.

Curriculum Links

3-4 years Understanding the World

- * Begin to make sense of their own life-story and family's history. Reception - Understanding the World
- * Comment on images of familiar situations in the past.
- * Recognise that people have different beliefs and celebrate special times in different ways.

ELG - Understanding the World

- * Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now, drawing on experiences and what has been read in class.
- * Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling.

Links to our core values...

- How can we show love and respect towards things that have happened before we were born?
- How can we show kindness to the global community?

Exciting Books

